1 General

The World cable wakeboard rules apply to the European (EAME) Championships and to all other homologated competitions in EAME. Where the words "World" or "IWSF" appear in the World cable wakeboard rules these are to be read as "EAME".

2 EAME Ranking lists

- 2.1 The points are awarded for taking part at the World and European Championships, all international events homologated in EAME region, as they are written down in the World Rules.
- 2.2 Each National Federation must provide to their national and international riders the EAME wakeboarding license, which permits them to take part at international events, with the exception of the titled events. National Federations can enter the riders' names through the EAME website at www.eame.be, using the password of the Federation. The licenses are free of charge.

3 Reducing levels for international judges (replaces World rule 16.4)

International level 2: If a judge in the past two seasons hasn't judged at an international event or national championships, or hasn't passed the official exam for this or higher level, his level will be reduced by one.

International level 1: If a judge in the past season hasn't judged at an international event or national championships, or hasn't passed the official exam for this level, his level will be reduced by one.
