The RULES:

GENERAL IWWF CWWC RULES (Appendix G):

Abstract APPENDIX G VIRTUAL OR ONLINE COMPETITIONS

1. All events will be registered at cablewakeboard.net and riders will join them in order to get the final scores & ranking points.
2. Unedited videos will be uploaded to the online platform <http://battle-now.com/>
3. Virtual / Online competitions are differentiated as:

NON-LOCATION BASED EVENTS

Organizers are welcome to surprise us with new exciting formats, riders will shoot and upload the videos themselves.

4. Organizers will compile the Competition Bulletin containing the following information:
 - Competition format explained in detail
 - Requested Rank of the event (1-4 stars, ranked, non-ranked), categories
 - Registration rules, fees and deadlines, duration of the event
 - Prizes
 - Judging criteria, including community judging (max. 10%)
5. Bulletins for proposed International events will be revised by CWWC, for National events by the relevant Confederation Councils and Judging panel will be appointed.
6. Competitions will be awarded the appropriate Rank depending on format, Prize fund, competition duration and on site Officials.
7. Final results will be published and confirmed no later than 24 hours after the competition closes online, details of each event to be listed in the bulletin.
8. Registration fees – all National events are free of charge, however the service fees still apply, please refer to the Registration form for details.

Remarks & Explanations:

There could be different rider entry fees from event to event depending on the level (i.E. Stars, Pricemoney, Title,...) of the event. But the IWWF Entry Fees for Organizers to register national Events are free of charge. The Service Fee still apply to finance the system. International Events are only registered as non location based events as long as travel restrictions and training possibilities are different all over the world.

Battle RULES 1# Kicker 540°

What do you win: 100 international points -One Star Int - 100 ranking points.

In the first battle of the IWWF Wakeboard League it is up to the kicker!

Show us your best 540 spin.

No flip or onefooted tricks should be part of the trick, otherwise, you can get creative.

Heelside, toeside, frontside, backside, with grab, without grab, off-axis, rewind but not more than 540 degrees in total!

Show what you can do!

The deadline for uploading the video is Saturday, August 1st at 11.0 p.m.

Afterwards, judges will upload their scores until Sunday 7 p.m.

So the winner of the battle will be determined at 7 p.m. Sunday August 2nd! Please Follow Series Rules, otherwise your footage could be deleted or disqualified!

IWWF WL Series RULES

The IWWF Wakeboard League is a series of individual competitions in which the participants collect points to ultimately choose the IWWF Wakeboard League in their respective categories.

Each Competiton will be rewarded with 100 International Ranking Points for the first Place.

International 1 STAR Competition!

There are a total of ten battles per category.

A battle is published 2 weeks before the respective deadline of the battle. The deadline will be announced per battle. In general, however, the deadline on Saturday evening is 11pm CET.

The judges then have all Sunday to 7 pm to evaluate and rank your videos. Depending of the number of uploaded videos, ties could be possible!

The IWWF Wakeboard League is run on the platform Battle NOW!

Registration is very easy:

Register on www.cablewakeboard.net with your Real Name.

Join on cablewakeboard.net the relevant online competition!

Join on cablewakeboard.net the relevant online competition! Join on cablewakeboard.net the relevant online competition!

Register on Battle NOW with the same real name! In case username is not free anymore, add your birthyear or your second name!

How to upload your video:

Film your contribution and upload it to Youtube, Vimeo or Facebook Click on Battle Series and select your suitable Battle Series

Select the current battle in the Battle Series and click on "Join Battle" Now you can simply copy the link to your video Done - we look forward to your video!

Series Ranking:

By participating in battles, you improve your series ranking based on your placement. Your placement counts in relation to the total number of participants in the battle.

An example for easy understanding:

2 participants in a category in a battle. 1st place receives 100% of the maximum number of points and second place receives 50% (½ of 100%) of the maximum number of points.

10 participants in one The 1st place receives 100% of the maximum number of points, the 2nd place receives 90% (9/10 of 100%) of the maximum number of points, the 3rd place receives 80% (8/10 of 100%) of the maximum score and so on.

You always get points when you take part in a battle, only if you miss a battle there are no points.

General Riding Rules:

Participants are not allowed to use short ropes for their battle clips.

General Video Cutting Rules:

The videos must have a resolution of at least 1080p.

Video Cuts within the trick or tricks are not allowed. Change of speed of the clips or slowmotions in the first main part of the clips are not allowed. It is possible to add a second part behind the first original uncutted and unchanged video with special effects. The approach of the respective trick, the trick and a landing including driving on must be shown.

Please upload your best falls and crashes below "BEST CRASH" and score yourself!

So that you also know how the judges evaluate, here are the criteria:

Technical Performance (0-5 points)

Difficulty: How difficult is your contribution?

Composition: Of course only applies to lines. Do you vary your tricks? Do you turn in different directions? Do you do different grabs? ...

Impression (0-5 points)

Style: Do you give the tricks a personal touch? Are you digging Do you build in creative elements? How high are your tricks ...

Clean: is the landing clean? Pre-spin? Are you digging or are you still groping? ...

Upload:

The videos can be uploaded to Youtube, Vimeo or Facebook.

A valid competition license is required for participation. Participants without a license can participate in two battles. Then you have to get the license. You can get this easily and quickly by joining a water ski or wakeboard club. More information is available on your national Waterski and Wakeboard Federation homepage.

Generals:

The points earned by Battles for which participants did not yet have a valid competition license also count towards the overall rating but are not valid for the IWWF International World Ranking List.

As the organizer, the IWWF reserves the right to disqualify participants.

The reasons for disqualification could be the follows:

Unsporting behavior, both in person and online! This includes insults and disproportionately criticized judging. Riding without impact protection / life jacket or helmet Uploading Videos with short ropes Uploading Videos with slowmotions in the first part of the videos.
