

17th Cable Wakeboard European Championships 2015

September 2015, Starwake Park in Ravenna / Italy

First European Champions crowned

Second and third day of competition saw the finals of Boys, Girls, Masters, Veterans, Junior Ladies, Junior Men and Junior Wakeskate divisions. The Starwake Park in Ravenna/Italy is the perfect location to host the 17th Cable Wakeboard and Wakeskate European Championships. Nice weather and a great setup guarantees an insane level of riding.

In the Boys division (under 15) Great Britain's Matty Muncey took Gold, ahead of Julian Hohn (GER) and Jules Charraud (FRA). Matty showed an insane run including a Moby Dick, Toeside Raley 360, S-Mobe, Raley 540, heavy rail tricks and a 900 from the kicker.

The Girls also impressed the judges with a great level of riding. Juliette Labelle won the golden Medal for the French team. Italy's Claudia Pagnini came second and Anna Fedina from Russia took third position.

In the Junior Men (under 19) competition the German and UK team were fighting hard for the title. In the end Liam Rundholz (GER) won the battle with an insane run consisting of 315, transfer BS 450 on the funbox, Mobe5, S-Mobe5 and a nice 900. Silver went to his teammate Ariano Blanik, Bronze to Ryan Peacock from the UK. Magdalena Kado (POL) won Junior Ladies, while Candice Boisson (FRA) and Joelina Gerards (GER) completed the podium.

In Junior Men Wakeskate the riders showed some insane technical difficulties. Julius Lang from Slovakia took first place ahead of Lukas Winkelmann (GER) and David Lang from Austria.

In the Masters division (30+) Veronika Holubova from Czech Republic and Roman Styczen from France crowned themselves European Champions. In addition the golden medal from the Veterans division (40+) by Raphael Menconi. It seems like the French federation is claiming team gold.

Open Categories

Later that day the Open Men and Open Women competed, it was a difficult fight to get a ticket for the semifinals, but in the end; the favorites made their way through.
