* Prize money over 10.000€ has to be transferred with the performance guarantee to IWWF before the publication of the event and will be transferred to the winners. This money will be lost if the event is cancelled. Prize money under 10.000€ has to be transferred to national Federation and has to be provided in cash at the event.

** This money will be awarded at the end of the year to the best riders on the World Ranking list.

*** Service fee for foreign Officials is used for international Officials' allowances, and is charged only if min. 1 international Official is invited. For each additional official the service fee increases by 4 €.

**** The performance guarantee is paid to IWWF when registering the event. This money will be lost if the event is cancelled. Upon completion of the event all noted fees are calculated depending on the number of participants, IWWF issues the invoice for the total amount and organizer / Federation pays the outstanding amount.

The use of the official CWWC scoring program during the competition is mandatory, results received in other format (excel, word, pdf, etc etc) will not be uploaded and riders will not receive ranking points for results.

Cancellation Policy: In the event of cancellation of the event, the organiser promises to reimburse any costs borne by either the IWWF or registered and paid riders to the event. These costs include but are not limited to: flights, hotel accommodation, airport transfers, parking fees. The organiser will also lose the registration fee and the performance guarantees paid to the IWWF on cancellation of the event.

If the organiser does not reimburse costs borne, then these costs will be recovered from the authorising Federation.

By signing this registration form, the Federation and the organizer agree to respect all IWWF and CWWC rules. For all types of competitions additional rules and financial obligations apply. For all high budget events like World Championships, World Trophy, World Cup or Confederation Championships an additional contract has to be signed.
